Enthusiast Media Group Wins PSDA's Flesh Membership Award for Printing and Service Excellence

Portland, OR July 13, 2011 – Enthusiast Media Group, one of the nation's premiere companies for printing and service excellence was recently announced as the recipient of the Flesh Membership Awards for 2011 by members of the Print Services and Distribution Association (PSDA).

Enthusiast Media Group (EMG) was founded in 2005 by owner and President Wendie Martin to "provide client solutions in every element of their printing process". Known for their superior quality of work, acute attention to detail and devout work ethic, EMG has set the standard for printing companies across the country.

"EMG is a forward-thinking, progressive company that is redefining the classic distributor model. They combine years of hands-on industry experience with a fresh new approach to serving their customer's changing needs," said Dan Adkison, President of Strategic Print Alliance and President and COO of Wright Enterprises in Portland, OR. "We can 'enthusiastically' endorse EMG as the recipient of the 2011 Flesh Membership Award. We look forward to supporting Wendie and her company through PSDA and Strategic Print Alliance."

The Flesh Membership Award is sponsored by the Strategic Print Alliance.(SPA) It is awarded annually to the top performing Print and Promotion Distributor within the SPA. This award is designed to help propel its recipient to the next level of success.
